Jobs

We support your job search so that you can become financially independent.

I'm not good at talking with people.
I'm worried about my long employment gap.
I always quit quickly after starting a new job.

Our expert support staffs are here to find appropriate jobs for you and give support enable you to work without worries for a long time after getting a job. If you don't have confidence in starting work, we consider a job-hunting schedule together and support you in preparing to work.

Housing

We support you in finding solutions to your residence worries, so that you can feel safe living in your home.

I cannot pay my rent.
I'm getting evicted.
I have no place to stay tonight.

We support you in securing a residence you can feel comfortable and living a stable life. For those who have lost or are at risk of losing their homes due to job losses or company closures, if you satisfy the requirements such as looking for a job, we will provide an amount equivalent to your rent for a fixed period of time.

Money

To relieve your money worries, we support you in reworking your household budget.

I cannot manage my living expenses well.
My life is difficult due to debts and non-payment.
I'm worried about my children's higher education expenses.

Our expert support staffs will consider with you about your money worries and support politely in finding solutions.

We will accompany you to the consultation counter for non-payment or other problems, and relieve your worries.

Children's Study Support

To support your children's futures, we help them with studies and practical work experience.

I'm worried about my children's studies and entering higher education.
My children don't have good life habits.
I want someone to consult with about my children.

Through our study support, we help your children to learn good study and life habits. We help children not to give up going on to higher education or quit high school, and give them the place to belong where they can feel comfortable and practical work experiences.

Depending on the consultation contents, if there are systems or specialized support institutions that you can use, we connect you to them. If you find it difficult to consult on your own, we go to the counter together to help you with the necessary procedures for using the system.
